— Black History Month Art Exhibit and Performance

ABOUT THE ART EXHIBIT

This is the 12th year of 5 Artists 1 Love celebrating Black History Month and the diversity within our local Black Community through the Arts. Five local visual Artists are selected from a list of submissions to participate. Each artist is chosen based on the quality and uniqueness of their work as well as their own individual history. As a result the exhibit becomes a visually compelling example of our own cultural mosaic here in Edmonton.

Traditionally the exhibit opens the first Saturday of February. There is a reception where people can see the Art and meet the Artists. Live music, food, drink and poetry are all a part of the event and a prelude of what's to come. It lasts approximately three to four hours and is always well attended. The Art is displayed through the month of February. Over the years the show has expanded to include various Satellite shows in Galleries around the City. Such Galleries have included, The Scott Gallery, Metro Gallery, The University of Augustana and Latitude 53.

THE WALL

This part of the exhibit is dedicated to a unified theme. Here Artists from outside the featured group submit a uniformed 12 x 12" piece on Gallery ready canvas that represents images and themes conjured up by the chosen topic. Themes in past have included, "Obama's election to the Democratic Party", "Music", "The Civil Rights Movement", "Got Soul", and most recently the term, "Black Lives Matter..?" This inclusive part of the exhibit has garnered outstanding feedback and growing interest yearly.

ABOUT THE PERFORMANCE

This exclusive one-night engagement explores the evolution of Black Music as it left Africa and landed on the shores of North America. Some of Edmonton's finest Poets, Dancers, and Musicians will fully immerse you in a cultural "Mashup". From soul to R&B, jazz, gospel, reggae and contemporary sounds it's all here. Even other genres such as country, folk and classical music have received unique soulful interpretations in the show. The event is like no other in Edmonton and promises to be an evening of infectious Music and entertainment.
